

The Day I Died (Dying to Live Book 1)

I spent the first 21 years of my life terrified of dying. Then I died. And Ive spent 25 years since trying to figure out how I can replicate that experience. Without the dying part. The day I Died is a short story (3 600 words). It is a real-life account of a near death experience and the episode that inspired the Dying to Live series. The Dying to Live series contains similar length episodes of knowingness or insights provided to the author during her profound experience of dying. The series is written so that each episode can be read as a stand-alone piece, or chronologically as an inspirational journey.
