

Making English Your Second Language

In order to make full use of Making English Your Second Language you will be directed to download mp3 audio files (at no charge) from our website, so a computer or handheld device is required to listen to those files. Making English Your Second Language is an interactive study tool written by teachers, for you, the student. In this book, Jonathan Ellis and Georgina Young-Ellis combine their many years of teaching experience with their expertise as writers into helpful and interesting lessons for building your ESL skills. Easy-to-use, with original and adapted stories and vocabulary to fit the high-intermediate to advanced English learner, lessons and exercises to freshen up your grammar, as well as conversation and writing topics, it is designed to work most effectively in electronic form on your computer, iPad, Kindle, or other e-reader, though it can also be used in print form. This book can either be utilized in the classroom with a teacher guiding the lesson, or completely on your own. Making English Your Second Language is fun, informal and even humorous. It should be a vital part of an ESL students continuing study outside the classroom, or part of an ESL teachers arsenal of great, effective materials. All units are classroom tested and approved!
