

Lebanese Shiite Leadership 1920-1970s: Personalities, Alliances, and Feuds

This book examines the coalitions and relationships within the power centers of Shiite politics during the era of political feudalism in Lebanon. The author maps the Shiite leadership and its inter-connections, including the alliances and rivalry between prominent Zuama, clans, and Ulama from the formation of Lebanon in 1920 to the decline of old Shiite politics and the emergence of popular movements in the 1970s. The work also explains the role of prominent intellectuals within these power centers.
