

Change Me into Zeuss Daughter: A Memoir

Change Me into Zeuss Daughter is a haunting and ultimately triumphant memoir about growing up poor and undaunted in the South. With an unflinching voice, Barbara Robinette Moss chronicles her familys chaotic, impoverished survival in the red-clay hills of Alabama. A wild-eyed, alcoholic father and a humble, heroic mother along with a shanty full of rambunctious brothers and sisters fill her life to the brim with stories that are gripping, tender, and funny. Mosss early fascination with art coincides with her desire to transform her twisted mummy face, which grew askew due to malnutrition and lack of medical care. Gazing at the stars on a clear Alabama night, she wishes to be the goddess of beauty, much-loved daughter of Zeus. Against all odds, the image of herself surfaces at last as she learns to believe in the beauty she brings forth from inside.
