

A History of Shakespeare on Screen: A Century of Film and Television

This book chronicles how film-makers have re-imagined Shakespeares plays from the earliest exhibitions in music halls and nickelodeons to todays multi-million dollar productions shown in megaplexes. The new edition updates the chronology to the year 2003 and includes a new chapter on such recent films as John Maddens Shakespeare in Love, Kenneth Branaghs Loves Labours Lost, Michael Almereydas Hamlet, and Billy Morrissettes Scotland, Pa. An up-to-date filmography, bibliography, and index of names makes it invaluable as a one-volume reference work.
