

Heralds of New Light

Will God ever send another prophet to the Seventh-day Adventist church? This question was increasingly being raised as Ellen Whites life drew to a close, and some people still wonder. Dr. Coon responds to this question from the Bible, not by telling us whether God will ever send another prophet but explaining how to recognize a true prophet and how to identify a fraud. He also tells the story of three people in the history of the church who claimed the prophetic gift but whose ministry did not match the guidelines set forth in Scripture.
