

Beat the Gambling Obsession: How to Gamble for Fun Again

If you want to gamble for fun again, if you want to escape the horror of compulsive gambling, this condensed book is for you. Within its pages is the nature of gambling, positive and negative expectation, and the few games that can be beaten. More important than the fundamentals, however, is how to channel the compulsion that plagues you into a constructive direction. In a nutshell, my manuscript describes methods to retrain your thinking and keep it that way. I did it. So can you. This paperback is not intended for dabblers or those who believe in magic wands. It is expressly written for those who are committed to recovering their lives.
